

Looking for some good reading this Fall? Today's Catholic is called to take an intelligent, spiritual approach to the bible.

Listed are 10 points for helpful Scripture reading.

1. Bible reading is for Catholics. The Church encourages Catholics to make reading the Bible part of their daily prayer lives. Reading these inspired words, people grow deeper in their relationship with God and come to understand their place in the community God has called them to in himself.
2. Prayer is the beginning and the end. Reading the Bible is not like reading a novel or a history book. It should begin with a prayer asking the Holy Spirit to open our hearts and minds to the Word of God. Scripture reading should end with a prayer that this Word will bear fruit in our lives, helping us to become holier and more faithful people.
3. Get the whole story! When selecting a Bible, look for a Catholic edition. A Catholic edition will include the Church's complete list of sacred books along with introductions and notes for understanding the text. A Catholic edition will have an imprimatur notice on the back of the title page. An imprimatur indicates that the book is free of errors in Catholic doctrine.
4. The Bible isn't a book. It's a library. The Bible is a collection of 73 books written over the course of many centuries. The books include royal history, prophecy, poetry, challenging letters to struggling new faith communities, and believers' accounts of the preaching and passion of Jesus. Knowing the genre of the book you are reading will help you understand the literary tools the author is using and the meaning the author is trying to convey.
5. Know what the Bible is – and what it isn't. The Bible is the story of God's relationship with the people He has called to Himself. It is not intended to be read as a history text, a science book, or a political manifesto. In the Bible, God teaches us the truths that we need for the sake of our salvation.
6. The sum is greater than the parts. Read the Bible in context. What happens before and after – even in other books – helps us to understand the true meaning of the text.
7. The Old relates to the New. The Old Testament and the New Testament shed light on each other. While we read the Old Testament in light of the death and resurrection of Jesus, it has its own value as well. Together, these testaments help us to understand God's plan for human beings.
8. Read alone or with others. By reading and reflecting on Sacred Scripture, Catholics join those faithful men and women who have taken God's Word to heart and put it into practice in their lives. We read the Bible within the tradition of the Church to benefit from the holiness and wisdom of all the faithful.

9. What is God saying to me? The Bible is not addressed only to long-dead people in a faraway land. It is addressed to each of us in our own unique situations. When we read, we need to understand what the text says and how the faithful have understood its meaning in the past. In light of this understanding, we then ask: What is God saying to me?
10. Reading isn't enough. If Scripture remains just words on a page, our work is not done. We need to meditate on the message and put it into action in our lives. Only then can the word be "living and effective." (Hebrews 4:12).

CAMBRIDGE RIGHT TO LIFE will be holding their biggest annual “Walk for Life” fundraiser this month to continue their work of defending “Life” from conception until natural death. Since 100% of their funding is through donations, despite Covid 19, their walk will go on, however, again this year, the walk will be held privately to allow for physical distancing! Supporters and participants will walk a 5km route of their choice on or around Saturday September 25th, individually or with friends.

Please sponsor our parish Deacon, Nick Cherri, who will represent our parish. Sponsorship donations can be dropped off at the parish office or in the collection baskets. Please provide your name, address and phone number. Cheques are made payable to “Cambridge Right to Life”
Thank You.

St. Vincent de Paul Donations: With children back in school the need for luncheon food is in demand. Donations of juice boxes, fruit cups, pudding cups, granola bars (peanut free), cereal, canned soup, canned pasta, cookies etc. would be appreciated. Monetary donations are accepted at the church exits on the last weekend of each month. Donations of food or money could also be brought to the parish office during weekdays.
Thank you for continuing to support those in need within our own community.

Self-Dedication to St. Joseph

Accept, dear St. Joseph, the consecration which I now make of myself to you. I dedicate myself wholly to you, that you may always be my father, my protector and my guide. Grant that, following your example, I may direct all my actions to the greater glory of God, in union with the Divine Heart of Jesus, with the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and with You. Amen
